Home is the place of solace for the young, who know nothing of the world and who would be forlorn and sad, if thrown outside it, It is a providential Shelter of the weak and in-experienced, who have to learn as yet to cope with the temptations which lies outside of it. It is the place of training of those who are not only ignorant, but have not yet learnt how to learn and who have to be taught by careful individual trial, how to set about profiting by the lessons of teacher. And it is the school of elementary studies – not of advances, for such studies alone can make masterminds. Moreover it is the shrine of our best affections, the bosom of our fondest recollections at spell upon our later life, a stay for world weary mind & soul; wherever we are, till the end comes.
