Once a small boy walked away into a distant field. He was seen and chased by a wolf. The boy ran as fast as he could, but he was soon overtaken by the wolf. When he found that there was no chance to escape, he turned round and said, "I see that now I cannot escape and will soon be eaten by you. But I would like to die as pleasantly as possible. So please play me a tune and let me have a last dance before you kill me." The wolf agreed and played a tune on the pipe and the boy danced merrily up and down the field. The result was that the noise of the pipe attracted the dogs from the farms nearby. They rushed up and drove the wolf away. In this way the boy escaped from the wolf.
